

CHARACTER OVERVIEW

1958 the year of The Earth Dog: 6/1 ☷ 戌戌

The earth Dog is a solid and loyal friend with a middle name of reliability. There is an immense nurturing and protecting quality with this person and a strong sense of determination. This is someone very much connected to the earth who is also a deep thinker. Modesty is another great quality here but caution is needed not to become too modest but to be sincere without becoming complacent or passive. This person has an attractive appearance and likes to look nice but can be a loner so sometimes needs encouragement to socialise. There is a very even temper here and someone who takes life as it comes, on the chin, warts and all.

The Dog is especially compatible with the Rabbit, and also gets on well with the Horse and the Tiger. She does not get on well with the Dragon

1965 the year of The Wooden Snake: 3/7 ☰ 乙巳

The Snake is considered to be the most attractive of the 12 Chinese Animals and is very popular with her friends and colleagues because of her very obliging nature and listening ear. However the Snake also knows how to look after the self and will never allow herself to go hungry, in other words she knows where to draw the line and say no when necessary. This is a shrewd operator with a strong sense of keeping the balance in both professional and personal life. She is a free spirit so can suddenly go off on a tangent away from what would usually be considered the normal routine. This person has a wealth of qualities inside but keeps her cards close to her chest and only allows those she trusts to see these qualities. Your secrets are safe with this person. She likes to offer guidance but caution is needed not to over stretch the self as her confidence is easily knocked.

The Snake is particularly compatible with the Monkey and gets on well with the Rooster and the Ox. She does not get on well with the Pig.

1968 the year of The Earth Monkey 6/2 坤 戊申

The Monkey is the party animal whose main priority in life is to do just that. Worries still get to the Monkey at times and the remedy to combat the problems will be to get out and focus on the good times. This is a very positive outlook to have as energy follows energy so feeding the good times starves the bad. However balance is still needed as responsibilities are a fact of life that has to be addressed from time to time. The Monkey has a way of putting all this into perspective. There can be a tendency towards stubborn qualities but this person is very reliable and predictable. You always know exactly where you stand with this person and what you see is what you get. She has no time for skeletons in the closet. This is a life of many opportunities and someone who can turn her hand to many things so she will never say die but always rise to the challenges of life. This is someone who can bring people together to create a new outlook and a stronger and renewed energy for them.

The Monkey gets on particularly well with the Snake as well as the Rat and the Dragon but needs to avoid the Tiger.

1986 the year of The Fire Tiger 4/2 离 丙午

Tigers like to hunt but do not waste their time on unnecessary endeavours so therefore only hunt when they are hungry. In fact they are just as comfortable to sit back on their laurels, bask in the sunlight, and survey the antics of the jungle. This can mean that this person takes some motivating at times and yet on other occasions there is no stopping him as once he spots his prey he can think of nothing else. The Tiger is very loyal to his own pack and has no tolerance when it comes to a lack of honesty so will defend with a rod of iron if anyone dares to cause him or his family any wrong. This person is strong and warm with an ability to turn his hand to many things. This is also a very emotional person who needs the element of metal in order to channel his energy and his passion in order to make them useful. As long as he plans well and has a clear communication then success can come as this is someone who carries out his duties faithfully.

The Tiger is particularly compatible with the Pig as well as the Horse and the Dog. He needs to avoid the Monkey.

1982 the year of The Water Dog 4/4 ☵ 壬戌

The first word in the vocabulary of the Dog is loyalty and the water Dog is no exception. In fact loyalty doesn't come much stronger than from this person because it knows no bounds so she will always go the extra mile to do her duty and be in your favour. She is totally reliable and will always do a job to the very best of her ability – sometimes to her own detriment as this Dog always puts herself last. It is actually not easy to really get to know these people as they are cautious on who they trust and few realise just how knowledgeable and talented they are because they rarely allow their true qualities to show. In fact sometimes she even surprises herself. She is a deep thinker with leadership qualities than can bring people together and win their support. She is a slow starter but has a focus on business and wins through in the end. The best advice is to stop worrying too much because this Dog can be prone to fretting.

The Dog gets on best with the Rabbit and also gets on well with the Tiger and the Horse. She is best to avoid the Dragon

Compatibility with the Earth Dog 1958

1958: The Earth Dog :	6/1	戌戌
1965: The Wooden Snake :	3/7	乙巳
1968: The Earth Monkey	6/2	戊申
1986: The Fire Tiger	4/2	丙寅
1982: The Water Dog	4/4	壬戌

1958 will get on best with 1982 as there is a strong internal loyalty from 1982 although she relies on 1958 for guidance. Together they make a strong team that can come up with the goods quickly and 1958 can always rely on 1982's support.

1986 also shares this internal loyalty to 1958 although there is a clash of opinions which can drain 1958 at times.

1968 and 1958 sing from the same song sheet which makes for a harmonious relationship but it is not necessarily the most productive. 1968 does encourage 1958 to see a different point of view but sometimes it is necessary to rein in 1968

1965's agenda is different from 1958's which may be a challenge to her at times. The contrast between the two characters is quite stark, 1958 being solid and feet firmly planted on the ground, 1965 wanting to get up and go with things as soon as possible.
