SPRING EQUINOX

So this is it. Spring has launched herself with the clocks leaping forwards into British Summer time and the season of new beginnings. Spring is always such an exciting time of year full of eager anticipation just like the fullness of the buds on the trees that are waiting to burst forth and share their enthusiasm for life and the promise of the joie de vie in the forthcoming months.

The Easter holiday brings the people out

YOUR HOME IS CALLING TO YOU

Refresh!
Refresh!
Refresh!

We all can see the benefits of a good spring clean but do we really understand the power?

When a home is cluttered and even worse grubby then the sticky surfaces that this creates only serves to attract more grime and the stagnant atmosphere in the home just gets heavier. Believe it or not this onto the streets after the long and wet winter months and friends and family unite in the pleasures of it all. Spring is a season for caring and sharing and for holding your head high in determination and confidence to go forth and multiply and of course to enjoy. Laughter soothes and feeds the soul.

Soon the sound of the lawn mower will become familiar again, and the gardeners will be taking up their post of keeper of the realm with immense pride in every turn of soil. In Feng Shui we completely believe that outside affects the inside so the consequence of all the efforts in the garden with brings new life into the home and to its occupants.

ENERGY CREATES ENERGY

The most important aspect of your property is your front door as this represents the mouth of the building through which the nourishment flows.

Maintenance of this area is as vital as a regular visit to your dentist. This is the first

PURE BA ZI CHINESE HOROSCOPE COURSE

This new course, that has opened the doors to ChueStyle teaching for the first time to non graduates of the Chue Foundation professional training course, has just been completed in London by Master Kay Tom and was well received by the students who attended.

has a direct affect on the people living within that space who, as a consequence may experience a whole range of challenges in their life.

CHINESE HOROSCOPE BA ZI 1 UPDATE

Understanding the qualities of the 8 characters of a person's Chinese Horoscope and the interaction of these 8 characters is invaluable in understanding the personality of a person and their subsequent needs. The 8 characters are an elemental representation of the true essence of a person and illustrate why it is we have certain priorities in life and why we do the things we do. Indeed it illustrates why we are all so different because there are so many permutations and possibilities within the relationships of the 8 characters.

Ba Zi 1 is an in depth course into the characteristics of the 5 elements and particularly the Yin and Yang aspects of these elements. The course is the perfect platform port of call when bringing the life of the outside environment in to the home. Lack of energy in a home can cause ill health, strains on the finances, relationship issues and even infertility.

Be wise and get the energy of your home and work space checked out and aligned to your best possible advantage with a Feng Shui Consultation.

IT IS THE BEST INVESTMENT YOU WILL MAKE THIS YEAR!

Pure Ba Zi, Chinese Horoscope, is a beginner's course and has been introduced for the benefit of students who want to specialise in horoscope studies only.

The course is a pre requisite to Ba Zi 1, 2 and 3 and leads on to the examination to achieve a Masters title in Ba Zi.

There are plans to offer this course again later in the year so watch the website for details.

for continuation of Chue Style studies as it not only enhances a students skills in selection of supporting elements but also provides a deeper understanding of these elements to apply to Chue Style Feng Shui and I Ching disciplines.

Recently Grand Master Chan has developed the content of Ba Zi 1 to provide even more understanding of the elements through Form, Heaven, earth and Human Chi, the Four Seasons, the 24 Terms of Chi and the interaction of the Major Fate with the Big Fate. In other words the bar has been raised to provide the practitioner with an even greater level of expertise. The attendance of this course is a pre requisite for the attendance of I Ching 1
